INTRODUCTION

The Annual Awareness Programme on Code of Conduct was organized by Godavari College of Nursing, Jalgaon on 6th November 2025 with the purpose of educating nursing students about the importance of discipline, ethical behaviour, and professional conduct of nursing.

The nursing profession demands a high level of moral responsibility, integrity, and commitment. Hence, understanding the institutional and professional code of conduct is essential for every nursing student to maintain decorum and uphold the dignity of the profession.

The event was organized for B.Sc. Nursing 1st Year, G.N.M 1st Year, P.B.B. Sc Nursing 1st Year, and M.Sc. Nursing 1st Year students. The session was led by Prof. Jacinth Dahiya, who delivered a motivational and informative talk on maintaining professionalism and ethical behaviour in nursing practice.

Aim

To create awareness among nursing students about the importance of following the Code of Conduct in academic, clinical, and professional settings.

Objectives

1. To educate students about the meaning and importance of the Code of Conduct in nursing education.
2. To promote ethical values, discipline, and professional behaviour among nursing students.
3. To develop a sense of responsibility, accountability, and integrity in personal and professional life.
4. To familiarize students with institutional rules, regulations, and expected standards of conduct.
5. To encourage students to uphold the dignity and reputation of the nursing profession through ethical practice.
