Introduction

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of Godavari College of Nursing, Jalgaon celebrated Independence Day with great enthusiasm on 15th August 2025. On this occasion, a Blood Donation Camp was organised as a mark of service to society and to spread awareness about the importance of voluntary blood donation.

Objectives

- To celebrate Independence Day by promoting social responsibility and patriotism.
- To encourage voluntary blood donation among students and community members.
- To create awareness regarding the importance of donating blood to save lives.

Programme Details

Date: 15th August 2025

Venue: Godavari College of Nursing, Jalgaon

Organised by: NSS Unit, Godavari College of Nursing, Jalgaon

Activities Conducted

Flag Hosting Ceremony – The programme began with hosting of the National Flag followed by the National Anthem.

Patriotic Speeches & Songs – Students and faculty delivered speeches and sang patriotic Songs highlighting the sacrifices of freedom fighters.

Blood Donation Camp – In collaboration with a local blood bank, NSS volunteers and faculty members participated in blood donation.

Awareness Talk – A session was conducted to educate the community about the need for blood donation, eligibility, and its health benefits.

Outcomes

Successful collection of blood units that will benefit patients in need.

Increased awareness among students and the community about the importance of blood donation.

Strengthened the spirit of patriotism, unity, and service.

Conclusion

The Independence Day celebration combined with the Blood Donation Camp proved to be a meaningful event. It not only commemorated the sacrifices of freedom fighters but also reinforced the values of service and responsibility among NSS volunteers and the community.
