REPORT ON: ORGAN DONATION DAY

Department of Fundamentals of Nursing & Medical-Surgical Nursing

In Collaboration With: Primary Health Centre, Nashirabad

Venue: Nashirabad PHC

Date & Time: 14th August, 10:00 AM

The Departments of Fundamentals of Nursing & Medical Surgical Nursing in collaboration with Primary Health Centre, Nashirabad, successfully organized an Organ Donation Awareness Rally on 14th August at 10:00 AM.

The event aimed to spread awareness among the local community about the significance of organ donation, its life-saving potential, and the myths surrounding it. The rally began at the PHC premises and covered key areas of Nashirabad village, engaging residents and distributing informational pamphlets.

The program was conducted in the gracious presence of Medical Officer Dr. Karishma Jain, who inaugurated the rally and addressed the participants. She highlighted the importance of pledging for organ donation and clarified the medical, legal, and ethical aspects associated with it.

Students and faculty members actively participated, carrying banners and placards with powerful slogans advocating organ donation. PHC medical staff and local health workers joined hands with the participants, enhancing the credibility and reach of the message.

The rally was successfully coordinated under the guidance of Prof. Piyush Wagh, HOD, Fundamentals of Nursing, whose leadership and motivation inspired students to actively contribute to the noble cause. Members including Omkar Murudkar, Suraj Khawate, Nilesh Shirsat, Abhijeet Rathod, Sakshi Dongre, Preshit Gaikwad, and Sanskriti Sule played an instrumental role in organizing and executing the event.

The event created a strong impact on the villagers, many of whom came forward with queries about the organ donation process. The interactive discussions between community members and healthcare professionals helped in breaking misconceptions and building trust. Local leaders and volunteers also expressed their support, promising to further spread the message within the community.

Students showcased their creativity through catchy slogans, songs, and skits during the rally, making the campaign more engaging. The distribution of pamphlets in the local language ensured that the information reached people of all age groups. The collaboration between the nursing departments and PHC was appreciated as a model of academic-community partnership.

Faculty members emphasized that such initiatives not only raise awareness but also instill social responsibility among students. The rally served as a reminder that organ donation is a noble act that can give a second chance at life to many. Media coverage of the event helped extend its reach beyond the village, encouraging nearby communities as well.

The rally concluded with a group pledge for organ donation, followed by a heartfelt vote of thanks to all contributors and participants. Overall, the rally successfully fulfilled its objective of promoting organ donation awareness and inspired many to take the pledge for this life-saving cause.
