REPORT ON BLOOD DONATION DAY

Date: 1 October 2026

Venue: Dr. Ulhas Patil Medical College & Hospital

Organised by: NSS Unit, Godavari College of Nursing, Jalgaon

The NSS Unit organized a Blood Donation Awareness Programme and Blood Donation Camp at the Blood Bank of Dr. Ulhas Patil Medical College & Hospital. The programme was conducted with the objective of creating awareness among students and NSS volunteers about the importance of voluntary blood donation and its significant role in saving human lives.

The programme emphasized the importance of regular and voluntary blood donation as a noble social responsibility. The NSS volunteers were actively involved in the programme and demonstrated great enthusiasm and commitment towards the cause of community service.

As part of the programme, the NSS volunteers voluntarily donated 32 bags of blood. Their active participation reflected a strong sense of social responsibility, compassion, and willingness to contribute towards the healthcare needs of the community.

The programme received an enthusiastic response from the students and NSS volunteers. It successfully promoted awareness regarding voluntary blood donation and encouraged students to understand the importance of contributing to society through meaningful community service.

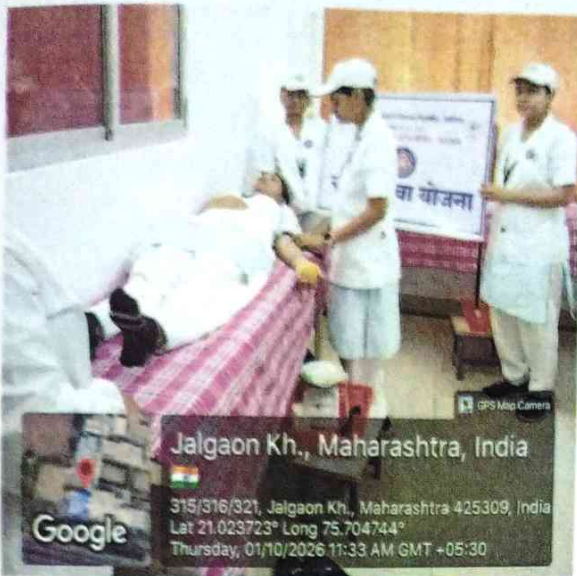

Conclusion:

The Blood Donation Programme was successfully conducted with active participation and cooperation from the NSS volunteers. The donation of 32 bags of blood was a significant contribution towards the community and made the programme meaningful and impactful. The initiative helped foster awareness, social responsibility, and a spirit of service among the students.
