Report Ganesh Chaturthi Celebration 2026 at Godavari College of Nursing

Godavari College of Nursing, Jalgaon, celebrated the auspicious occasion of Ganrajya Mahotsav and Ganesh Utsav with great devotion, enthusiasm, creativity, and active participation from students and faculty members. The seven-day celebration was organized with the objective of promoting cultural values, devotion, creativity, environmental awareness, teamwork, and a sense of unity among the students. A series of cultural and co-curricular activities, including Ganesh Sthapana, Poster Competition, Rangoli Competition, Quiz Competition, Clay Model Making Competition, Prize Distribution Ceremony, and Ganesh Visarjan, were organized as part of the celebrations.

The celebrations commenced on 14th September 2026 with the auspicious Ganesh Sthapana ceremony at Godavari College of Nursing. The programme was commemorated by the presence of Respected Dr. Ulhas Patil Sir, President, Godavari Foundation; Dr. Prashant Solanke Sir, Dean, DUMPC; Dr. Vaibhav Patil Sir, DM Cardiologist; and Dr. Vishakha Ganvir Mam, Principal, Godavari College of Nursing. The presence and blessings of the dignitaries added significance and grandeur to the inaugural ceremony.

The programme began with a graceful Welcome Dance presented by the students of 3rd Semester B.Sc. Nursing, which created an auspicious and vibrant atmosphere for the celebration. This was followed by the traditional Ganesh Sthapana, performed by Mr. Milind Tayade with devotion and reverence. The ceremony marked the formal beginning of the seven-day Ganesh Utsav celebrations at the college. The occasion brought together students and faculty members in an atmosphere of devotion, cultural harmony, and collective celebration.

As part of the Ganrajya Mahotsav celebrations, a series of competitions were organized by the Arindam Batch of Godavari College of Nursing, Jalgaon, providing students with opportunities to demonstrate their creativity, knowledge, artistic abilities, and team spirit.

On 15th September 2026, a Poster Competition was organized on the theme "Eco-Friendly Ganpati." The competition aimed to create awareness among students regarding the importance of celebrating Ganesh Utsav in an environmentally responsible and sustainable manner. Students used their creativity and artistic skills to convey meaningful messages related to environmental protection, pollution reduction, sustainable celebrations, and eco-friendly practices. The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation and reflected the students' awareness and commitment towards environmental conservation.

On the same day, a Rangoli Competition was organized as part of the Ganrajya Mahotsav celebrations. The competition provided students with a platform to express their creativity, artistic skills, and cultural spirit through colorful and attractive rangoli designs. Students enthusiastically participated in the event and created beautiful designs reflecting traditional motifs, cultural themes, and festive elements. The activity contributed to creating a vibrant and festive atmosphere within the college campus while encouraging artistic expression and teamwork among the students.

On 16th September 2026, a Quiz Competition was organized by the Arindam Batch on the theme "Devotion to Lord Ganesha." The competition aimed to enhance students' knowledge regarding Lord Ganesha, His significance in Indian culture, and the traditions and practices associated with Ganesh worship. The quiz included questions related to the mythology, history, festivals, traditions, and cultural significance of Lord Ganesha. Students participated enthusiastically and demonstrated their knowledge, confidence, presence of mind, and team spirit. The activity provided an enjoyable as well as educational experience and encouraged students to learn more about India's rich cultural heritage.

In addition to the Poster, Rangoli, and Quiz Competitions, a Clay Model Making Competition was also organized as part of the Ganrajya Mahotsav celebrations. The activity encouraged students to explore their artistic abilities and express their creativity through clay modelling. The various competitions collectively provided students with opportunities to participate in meaningful co-curricular activities while fostering creativity, cultural awareness, collaboration, and healthy competition.

As part of the religious observances associated with the Ganesh Utsav, a Satyanarayan Puja was also performed at the college with devotion and traditional rituals. The puja was performed by a member of the college staff. The ceremony provided an opportunity for the staff and students to come together in prayer and seek blessings for the well-being, prosperity, and success of the institution and its members. The sacred atmosphere created through the puja added a spiritual dimension to the Ganesh Utsav celebrations and strengthened the sense of togetherness among the college community.

Following the successful completion of the competitions, a Prize Distribution Ceremony was organized at Dr. Akshata Patil Hall to recognize and appreciate the efforts and achievements of the participating students. The ceremony was conducted by the Vice Principal Madam, along with the evaluators of the respective competitions. Winners of the Rangoli, Poster Making, Quiz, and Clay Model Making Competitions were felicitated with prizes and certificates in recognition of their outstanding performance and creative contributions.

The evaluators of the various competitions were also acknowledged and thanked for their valuable time, impartial judgment, guidance, and support in ensuring the successful conduct of the activities. The Vice Principal Madam congratulated all the winners and appreciated the sincere efforts and enthusiastic participation of the students and staff members. The ceremony concluded with a Vote of Thanks, expressing gratitude to everyone who contributed to the successful organization of the competitions and celebrations.

The seven-day-long Ganesh Utsav at Godavari College of Nursing culminated with a grand and devotional Ganesh Visarjan ceremony. On the occasion of the immersion, Lord Ganesha, seated on a beautifully decorated golden horse-drawn Rath, was taken out in a vibrant and colourful procession. Students participated with great enthusiasm and unity, dressed in traditional attire and celebrating the occasion with gulal, dhol-tasha, music, and energetic dancing.

The immersion ceremony was graced by the presence of Hon. Dr. Ulhas Patil Sir and Hon. Dr. Vaibhav Patil Sir, whose presence added significance to the concluding ceremony. The students and staff members participated in the procession with devotion, enthusiasm, and a strong sense of togetherness. The celebration concluded on a joyful and devotional note, marking the successful completion of the seven-day Ganesh Utsav at the college.

Overall, the Ganrajya Mahotsav and Ganesh Utsav celebrations at Godavari College of Nursing provided students with a meaningful platform to celebrate cultural traditions while developing creativity, knowledge, teamwork, environmental consciousness, and social participation. The combination of religious and cultural activities with creative and educational competitions made the celebration vibrant, engaging, and memorable. The Eco-Friendly Ganpati Poster Competition promoted environmental responsibility, while the Rangoli and Clay Model Making Competitions encouraged artistic expression. The Quiz Competition enhanced cultural and historical awareness, and the prize distribution ceremony recognized and motivated student achievements.

The successful conduct of the celebrations reflected the active involvement and cooperation of the management, dignitaries, Principal, Vice Principal, faculty members, evaluators, organizing team, and students of Godavari College of Nursing. The programmed strengthened the spirit of unity and cultural participation among the students and contributed to creating a positive and enriching campus environment. The celebrations concluded successfully with the blessings of Lord Ganesha and a collective spirit of devotion, harmony, creativity, and enthusiasm.
