Report on 77th Republic Day Celebration (26th January 2026)

Godavari College of Nursing, Jalgaon

Godavari College of Nursing, Jalgaon, proudly participated in the celebration of the 77th Republic Day of India organized under the aegis of Godavari Foundation on Monday, 26th January 2026, at 7:30 a.m. at the DUPMC Ground, Jalgaon.

The program was conducted in the esteemed presence of Hon'ble Dr. Ulhas Patil, Ex. Member of Parliament and President of Godavari Foundation, Jalgaon, who graced the occasion as the Chief Guest. The celebration witnessed the enthusiastic participation of management members, deans, registrars, faculty, staff, and students from all constituent institutions of the foundation.

The program commenced with the unfurling of the National Flag by the Chief Guest, followed by the National Anthem, creating an atmosphere of patriotism and pride. A ceremonial salute was given by the all teaching, non-teaching staff and students, marking respect for the nation and its Constitution.

Godavari College of Nursing actively contributed to the success of the event through:

- Cultural Performances: Students presented patriotic songs and cultural performances highlighting national integration and the values enshrined in the Constitution of India.
- Health Awareness Initiative: Faculty and students collaboratively organized a brief health awareness message emphasizing the role of nurses in nation-building and community service.
- Volunteer Support: Students volunteered in event coordination, stage management, and hospitality arrangements, ensuring smooth execution of the program, and displaying discipline and unity.

In his inspiring address, Hon'ble Dr. Ulhas Patil emphasized the importance of constitutional values, dedication to professional ethics, and the vital role of healthcare professionals in strengthening the nation.
