Report on Horse Riding Club Activity
Godavari College of Nursing

Date: 29 April 2026

Time: 10:00 AM

On 29 April 2026 at 10:00 AM, the teaching staff and students of Godavari College of Nursing visited a Horse Riding Club for an enjoyable and refreshing activity. The visit was organized with the aim of promoting physical fitness, relaxation, and team bonding.

The group arrived at the club in the morning and was warmly welcomed by the instructors. A brief orientation session was conducted to introduce participants to basic horse riding techniques, safety measures, and guidelines for interacting with the horses.

Both students and faculty members actively took part in the riding sessions. Many participants experienced horse riding for the first time, making it an exciting and memorable event. Under the supervision of trained professionals, everyone had the opportunity to ride horses safely and confidently.

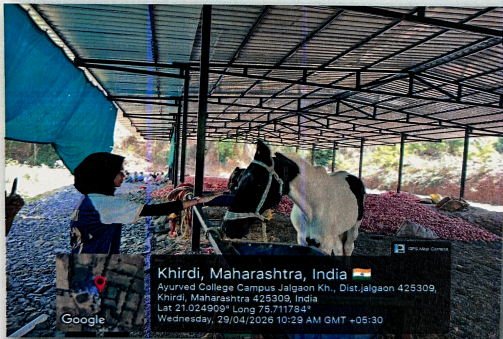

Apart from riding, the participants also learned about horse care, grooming, and stable management. This added an educational aspect to the visit and increased awareness about animal care and discipline.

The activity created a joyful atmosphere filled with enthusiasm, laughter, and mutual support. It also helped strengthen the bond between students and teachers, promoting a sense of unity and teamwork.

Overall, the visit to the Horse Riding Club was a successful and enriching experience. It provided a perfect balance of recreation and learning, leaving all participants refreshed and motivated.
