The Department of Community Health Nursing, Godavari College of Nursing, Jalgaon organized a Continuing Nursing Education (CNE) program on “Advancements in Nursing Practice and Patient Safety” on 18 March 2026 from 8:00 AM to 2:00 PM.

The program began at 8:00 AM with participant registration. This was followed by the inaugural ceremony, which started with the traditional lamp lighting ceremony by the dignitaries.

The keynote address was delivered by Principal Prof. Vishakha Wagh, who highlighted the importance of continuous learning and the role of nurses in improving patient safety and healthcare quality. The program was conducted under the guidance of Vice Principal Prof. Jacinth Dhaya.

The CNE included several informative sessions by expert speakers on different sub-topics:

Prof. Jacinth Dhaya delivered a session on Recent Trends in Nursing Practice, explaining modern developments and innovations in nursing care.

Prof. Kavita Netkar, Principal GMC Jalgaon, spoke on Patient Safety and Quality Assurance, emphasizing safe practices and standards in healthcare settings.

Ms. Manorama Kshyp, Associate Professor, GCON Jalgaon, presented on Legal and Ethical Aspects in Nursing, discussing professional responsibilities and ethical conduct.

Ms. Menao Devi, Associate Professor, GCON Jalgaon, delivered a session on Communication Skills and Interprofessional Collaboration, highlighting teamwork and effective communication in healthcare.

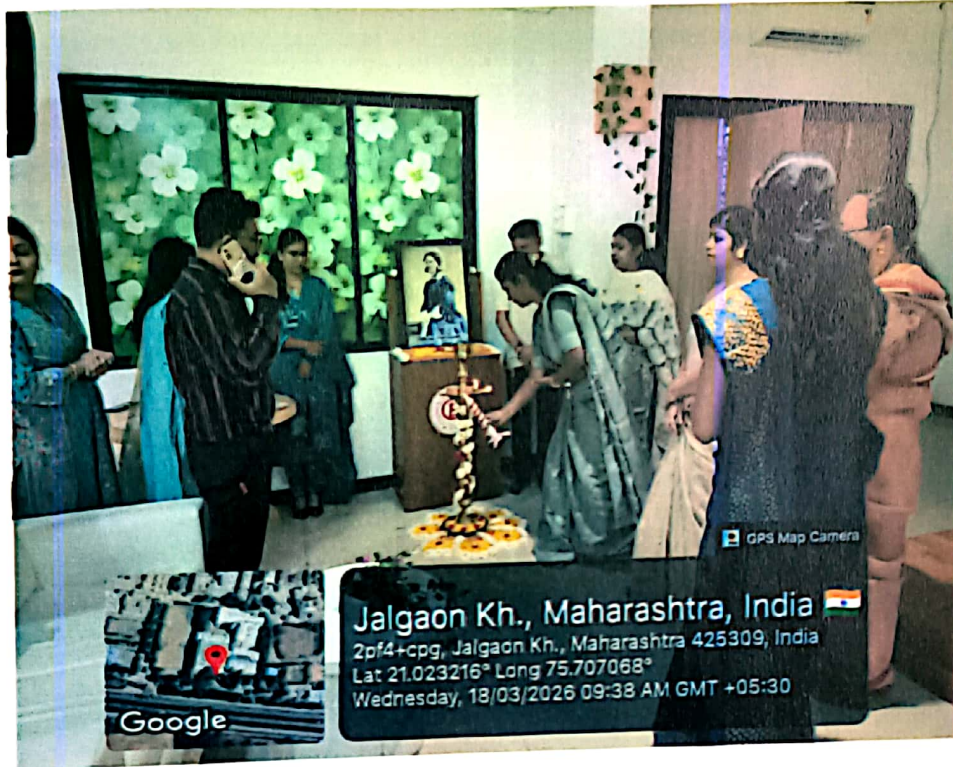

Ms. Ashwini Mankar, Associate Professor, GCON Jalgaon, spoke on Role of Nurses in Digital Health and Documentation, explaining the importance of technology and proper documentation in modern nursing practice.

The sessions were informative and helped participants gain knowledge about current advancements and safety practices in nursing.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks by Ms. Ashlesha Moon, PG Tutor, GCON Jalgaon, who expressed gratitude to the speakers, dignitaries, organizers, and participants for making the event successful.

Overall, the CNE program was highly beneficial and enriched the knowledge and professional skills of the nursing participants.
