REPORT ON INTERNATIONAL DAY OF ACTION FOR WOMEN'S HEALTH

Organized by: Department of Obstetrics & Gynecological Nursing

Institution: Godavari College of Nursing, Jalgaon

Date: 30th May 2026

Time: 10:00 AM

Venue: Akshata Patil Hall

Aim of the Program

The aim of organizing the seminar on International Day of Action for Women's Health was to create awareness among students and healthcare professionals regarding women's health rights, sexual and reproductive health, and the importance of strengthening healthcare systems to ensure equitable, accessible, and quality healthcare services for all women. The program also aimed to promote understanding of the challenges faced by women during times of crisis and to encourage active participation in advocating for health rights and gender justice.

Godavari College of Nursing, Jalgaon, observed the International Day of Action for Women's Health on 30th May 2026 by organizing an educational seminar at Akshata Patil Hall. The program was conducted by the Department of Obstetrics & Gynecological Nursing with the objective of creating awareness regarding women's health rights, reproductive health, and the importance of equitable healthcare services.

The theme for this year was "Essential, Not Optional: Strengthening Health Systems to Uphold Health Rights and Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights and Justice in Times of Polycrisis."

The program commenced at 10:00 AM with a warm welcome of the guest speaker, Dr. Aishwarya R. Chalwade, who shared her valuable knowledge and expertise on various aspects of women's health. She emphasized the significance of accessible and quality healthcare services, reproductive rights, gender equality, and the need for resilient health systems to address challenges faced by women during times of crisis.

The seminar provided participants with a deeper understanding of women's health issues and highlighted the role of healthcare professionals in promoting health rights and reproductive justice. Students actively participated in the session and gained valuable insights through the interactive discussion.

Faculty members, nursing students, and interns attended the program enthusiastically. The seminar successfully achieved its objectives by enhancing awareness and encouraging participants to advocate for women's health and well-being.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks expressing gratitude to the guest speaker, management, faculty members, and all participants for their support and active involvement in making the event successful.

Outcome of the Program:

- Enhanced awareness regarding women's health rights and reproductive health.
- Improved understanding of the importance of strengthening healthcare systems.
- Encouraged nursing students to promote health equity and justice.
- Fostered awareness about challenges faced by women during public health and social crises.

The program was highly informative, educational, and beneficial for all attendees.

The program concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Ms. Nikita Ramteke, M.Sc. Nursing 2nd Year student, who expressed sincere gratitude to the guest speaker for sharing her expertise and valuable insights. She also thanked the management, Principal, faculty members, organizing committee, and all participants for their support and cooperation in making the program a grand success.
