Skit Performance for International Girl Child Day 2024

Organized by : OBGY Department of Godavari College of Nursing, Jalgaon

Date: 18th October 2024

Venue: Godavari Hospital Jalgaon

Chief Guest: Dr. Ulhas Patil

On the occasion of International Girl Child Day 2024, the 4th semester students of Godavari College of Nursing organized a powerful and moving skit performance at Godavari Hospital on October 17, 2024. The event was held in the presence of the esteemed Dr. Ulhas Patil sir a well-known figure in the field of healthcare and education, who graced the occasion as the chief guest. The skit, in particular, focused on the challenges faced by young girls in rural areas and the importance of education in transforming their lives.

The event also featured a series of cultural performances by nursing students, including skits, dances, and songs that highlighted the struggles and achievements of girls across the world. The skit, in particular, focused on the challenges faced by young girls in rural areas and the importance of education in transforming their lives.

The skit aimed to:

- Raise awareness about the importance of educating and empowering the girl child.
- Highlight the social and cultural challenges faced by girls, especially in rural and underprivileged communities.
- Promote gender equality and the vision of a better future for girls.

The skit, performed by the 4th semester students, revolved around the theme of "Girl Vision for Future ". The storyline followed the journey of a young girl from a rural background, struggling to pursue her education against societal expectations and gender stereotypes. The narrative captured the emotional and physical challenges girls face, but also the resilience and determination that empowers them to achieve their dreams. The skit was well-received by the audience, which included faculty members, hospital staff, students, and patients. The emotional and thought-provoking performance sparked discussions about gender equality, education, and the social barriers that girls face, particularly in rural areas.

At the conclusion of the event, winners of the slogan competition were awarded prizes. And distributed the certificate of appreciation. Additionally, the organizing committee of M.Sc. 1st and 2nd year students were appreciated for their efforts in making the event a success.
